ACCOMMODATION: WHERE TO LIVE IN BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham City University has five halls of residence, all of which are within walking distance of BCUIC and the City Centre Campus. Every room option features an en-suite bathroom and many include a double bed.

HALLS OF RESIDENCE

Staying in a halls of residence is a great way to meet new people and make friends. You would usually share a kitchen and living room with between four and seven fellow students, but have your own en-suite bathroom.

HOW TO BOOK A ROOM

Once you know which Halls you would like to live in, we can provisionally allocate you a room. Then, once you have received your CAS and your 8-digit university student ID number, you will need to officially submit your accommodation application through the BCU Accommodation Application Portal. Your accommodation contract start date will commence from the date you sign and accept the accommodation contract.

To let us know your accommodation preference, or if you have any questions about your options, please email our Accommodation Team: accommodation@bcuic.bcu.ac.uk
